

How the Moon Became Beautiful

“How the Moon Became Beautiful” is a Chinese Fable. Read the story and check the correct Chinese symbol.

月
moon

星
star

花 flower

The moon was not always beautiful. It was too dark and gloomy to light up the sky. One day it said, “I do not like being a _____. I wish that I was a bright star or a pretty flower.”

月	花
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

The _____ said, “I cannot help you. My job is to light up the sky. Sorry, moon.”

花	星
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

The _____ said, “Oh what a shame, moon. I am too busy blooming in the garden.”

月	花
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

One day the moon met Tseh-N'io, the most beautiful girl in the world.

The moon said, “If you come with me forever, I will be beautiful.”

Tseh-N'io went away to live on the moon. She shared her beauty with the night sky. That is how the moon became beautiful.