

The Middle Ages

The Middle Ages is a historical time period in Europe. It began a long time ago in 500 AD. People lived in stone castles or homes made from logs and mud. They ate food such as bread, beans and stew. People also wore special gowns called tunics during the Middle Ages. The Middle Ages ended a thousand years later in 1500 AD.

Check the pictures that show objects from the Middle Ages.

