

What Is Archaeology?

Archaeology is the study of past life and culture. Archaeologists look for objects such as tools, art, jewelry and even bones to learn more about ancient history.

Circle the objects that an archaeologist might look for.

