

The Boy Who Cried Wolf: Cause and Effect

An effect is WHAT happens in a story. A cause is WHY something happens. Read the sentences below. Match the causes on the left to the effects that they produced. Tick the matching picture next to each effect on the right.

The boy wanted to amuse himself.

They just ignored him when they heard his cries again.

Red flower icon Orange butterfly icon Green leaf icon

The shepherd boy had fooled the village people twice.

The wolf ate all the sheep.

Red flower icon Orange butterfly icon Green leaf icon

The villagers didn't come to scare off the wolf.

He shouted, "Help! Wolf!"

Red flower icon Orange butterfly icon Green leaf icon

