

FOLKLORE FROM AROUND THE WORLD: GREEK MYTHOLOGY

Read these descriptions of magical creatures from Greek mythology. Circle the matching pictures.

I am a Cyclops. I am a monstrous giant with one large round eye in the middle of my face. I am very strong but not very smart. That is why Odysseus and his crew outsmarted me when they landed on my island.

I am Pegasus and I am a flying horse with wings. I carried Bellerophon when he defeated the monstrous Chimera.

I am a Centaur. I have the upper body of a human, but below the waist I have the body of a horse. I am very strong and intelligent. I can predict the future.

