

Meet the Grizzly Bear

Read the Grizzly Bear facts below. Some of the facts are true and some are false. Trace the arrows to the correct facts.

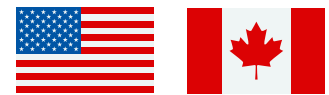

They live in forests and valleys near rivers.

They like to eat fish.

Grizzly bears live in the United States and Canada.

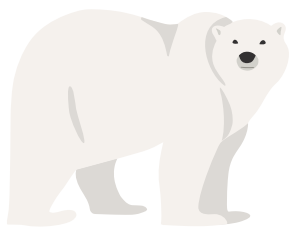

Grizzly bears have a hump on their back made of muscles.

Grizzly bears are afraid of water.

Grizzly bears eat lots of berries, leaves and nuts.

They are a type of polar bear.

They are not fast runners.

They like to live in large groups.

Cubs can climb trees when they are young.

