

Learning More About Wolves

Read the text and the questions. Then circle the correct answers.

Wolves are the largest member of the dog family. They can weigh close to 200 pounds. Wolves have pointed ears on top of their heads.

Wolves live in a group of 6-10 wolves called a pack. Wolves are known for howling to communicate with each other.

1. What is the largest member of the dog family?

Lions

Cats

Wolves

2. How do wolves communicate with each other?

Talking

Howling

Smiling