

Counting and Comparing: Assessment 1

Flowers Need Sunlight to Grow!

Check the correct answer to complete the counting sequence.

Flower bed 1: A row of eight flowers with numbers or question marks above them. From left to right: a purple flower with 585, an orange flower with 586, a red flower with a question mark, a purple flower with 588, an orange flower with 589, a red flower with a question mark, a purple flower with 591, and an orange flower with 592. Below the flowers are two pairs of empty boxes. The first pair has 596 above the left box and 587 above the right box. The second pair has 590 above the left box and 580 above the right box.

Flower bed 2: A row of eight flowers with numbers or question marks above them. From left to right: a red flower with 593, a purple flower with 594, an orange flower with a question mark, a red flower with 596, a purple flower with 597, an orange flower with 598, a red flower with 599, and a purple flower with a question mark. Below the flowers are two pairs of empty boxes. The first pair has 599 above the left box and 595 above the right box. The second pair has 600 above the left box and 500 above the right box.

Check the number that is represented by the following:
seven hundred thirty-two

237

732

70032

Check the words that match the following number: 816

eight hundred sixteen

eight hundred sixty

eighty-six