

Counting on Pollination: Butterflies, Moths, Beetles

These important insects want to help these flowers pollinate. Check the box next to the pollinator with the number that is missing.

Row 1: A yellow bee is next to a box containing 976. A ladybug is next to a box containing 970. The flowers have numbers: 977, ?, 979, ?, 981, 982, 983, 984.

Row 2: A ladybug is next to a box containing 978. A moth is next to a box containing 980. The flowers have numbers: 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, ?, ?, 992.

Row 3: A moth is next to a box containing 992. A green beetle is next to a box containing 991. The flowers have numbers: 993, ?, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, ?.

Row 4: A ladybug is next to a box containing 994. A bee is next to a box containing 1000. The flowers have numbers: 993, ?, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, ?.