Read the story. Check the box that shows the character's emotions at the beginning and the end of the story.

Sandra walked into school holding tightly onto the script that she had been rehearsing for days. Her hands were sweaty and her legs felt like jelly as she slowly walked into the auditorium. She made her way onto the stage in front of four teachers. She took a deep breath and began reciting her lines, just as she practiced. The teachers watched in silence and then clapped loudly. Sandra took a bow, with a big smile on her face. She walked out of the auditorium with her head held high.

1. At the beginning of the story Sandra felt:

nervous

2. At the end of the story Sandra felt:
