

Author's Purpose:

EROSION

Read the passage and circle the author's purpose.

The world around us is always changing. Weathering and erosion are caused by wind and water. As wind moves the air, it causes rock to loosen. Erosion occurs when wind, water or ice cause rocks to break apart. The wind or water can carry the rock away. These are some of the factors that lead to our changing environment.

Author's purpose:

to inform

to entertain

to persuade