

EROSION

Check off the correct word choice to fill in the blank.

Water, ice, and

wind / clouds can change the land.

This process is called pollution / erosion.

Weathering / Raining is when small particles of rock are broken off and carried away.

Soil on riverbanks is easily washed away.

This can cause the land to change / grow.

