

CONSTELLATION MAZE

A constellation is a group of stars that looks like a figure. There are 88 constellations in the sky. Two of the most well known constellations are Virgo and Ursa Major. The largest constellation in the night sky is Hydra. Hydra shows a snake.

What is the largest star constellation in the night sky? Trace the path that spells out its name to check your answer.

