

National Flag Day

Our national flag has three colors in it. Their meaning is symbolic. White represents purity and innocence, red symbolizes courage and strength, and blue means justice and vigilance. The 50 stars on the flag represent the 50 states, and the 13 stripes represent the thirteen American colonies that declared independence from Great Britain in 1776.

Check the correct answer to complete each fact.

The 50 stars represent the capital cities

the states

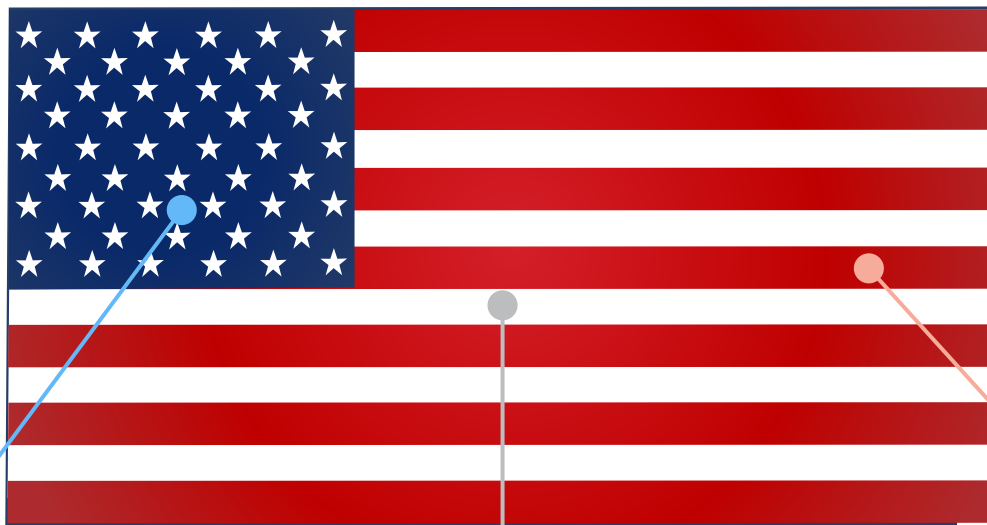

the national heroes

The 13 stripes represent the major rivers

the original colonies

the Navy

Blue represents

justice

kindness

rivers

White represents

freedom

purity

bravery

Red represents

courage

liberty

freedom