

Point of View

It is important that readers know who is telling a story in order to properly understand it. You can pay attention to pronouns that are used in order to discover who is telling the story.

1. Read the story and try to figure out whose point of view it is told from.

Marco sprinted out onto the field. He had waited all year for this day. Field day was the day that he finally got a chance to shine.

Marco had a hard time with many parts of school, but he was very good at athletics. He knew that he would be able to win the most events. First up was the 100 meter race. Marco was a great runner and he won it easily. Next came the frisbee throw and this was Marco's most challenging event, but he still managed to win that too. Last was the hurdles and again, Marco was very fast and could jump high. It was close, but Marco won this race and was the champion of field day.
