

The Boy Who Cried Wolf

Read the text.

Long ago there was a shepherd boy who lived next to a small village. The boy's job as shepherd was to watch his family's sheep and make sure none of them got away or got injured. The boy grew tired and bored of his job and decided to have some fun.

"Wolf! Wolf!" he shouted. Villagers nearby ran to help the boy and try to save the sheep, but when they got there they realized it was just a trick and there was no wolf. They were angry that they had come to help just to be laughed at by the shepherd boy.

The next day the boy was walking with his herd of sheep when he noticed a wolf hiding in the trees nearby.

"Wolf! Wolf!" he screamed. But nobody came. He shouted again. "Wolf! Wolf." Again, no one paid any attention to him. They did not believe the boy after what he had done the day before.

Answer the questions by checking the correct answer.

1. The main character in this story is...

the wolf

the shepherd boy

the town's people

2. What is the setting of this story?

a small village

a city

a forest

3. What is the problem in this story?

The village people won't help the shepherd boy.

The boy is lying and tricks the town's people.