

Journey to Jamestown

Jamestown was the first English settlement in North America. The settlers traveled aboard three ships - Discovery, Susan Constant and Godspeed. Their journey started in London in December, 1606. They made stops at the Canary Islands, the Caribbean Islands and finished their journey at Cape Henry, near Jamestown, Virginia in April, 1607.

Follow the Jamestown settlers' route. Trace the correct dotted line.

