

Circus Grammar: Conjunctions

A conjunction connects words, phrases and clauses.

In each row, check the correct conjunction to join the parts of the sentences together.

1. The acrobat climbed the silk strips, wrapped herself up,

and

but

while

spun all the way down to the floor!

2. The acrobat performed all kinds of gymnastic feats

yet

and

while

riding a horse.

3. The tightrope walker nearly fell off the wire,

while

and

yet

he continued the feat.

4. The clown tried to look serious,

and

but

then

he made everybody laugh.

