Circus Grammar: conjunctions

A conjunction connects words, phrases and clauses.

In each row, check the correct conjunction to join the parts of the sentences together.

1. The acrobat climbed the silk strips, wrapped herself up,

and

but

spun all the way down to the floor!

while

2. The acrobat performed all kinds of gymnastic

feats

yet

and

riding a horse.

while

3. The tightrope walker nearly fell off the wire,

while

and

he continued the feat.

yet

clown tried to look serious,

and

but

he made everybody laugh.

then