

Questions About Stories:

ASSESSMENT 3

Listen to the story. Then check the word that best describes when that part of the story happened. Remember the beginning means it happened first, the middle means it happened next, and the end means it happened last.

There once was a bear who lived alone in a tree house. He loved to drink tea. One day an owl flew to his window. The owl looked lonely, so the bear decided to become friends with the owl. The bear invited the owl in and they drank a cup of tea together.

Beginning Middle

Beginning End

Middle End